Export Compliance Certification Statement

2025

To all our valued customers;

Due to constant changes and requirements from the U.S. Department of State, we have been advised from our attorneys to kindly ask that our customers file annually a signed export compliance letter. This form must be signed by a Manager, Director, or an Officer of the company.

We have attached a copy of your review. We understand that you are busy and appreciate your efforts in helping us with this requirement.

To process your order without delay, please ensure the form is filled in completely where it is highlighted in yellow.

Best Regards,

Jeffrey Turk- President

 - d. in violation of any US Commerce Department licensing requirement;
 - e. in violation of any US Commerce Department regulation; nor
 - f. in violation of any US export law that is subject to enforcement or interpretation by the US Commerce Department.
- 3) Customer will not sell, transfer, export, or re-export any items, material, technology, or software that was obtained from or through Regional Airline Support Group:
 - a. to any person on a US State Department list of debarred, specially designated, or otherwise export-restricted persons (unless properly licensed by the United States Government to do so);
 - b. to any company on a US State Department list of debarred, specially designated, or otherwise export-restricted parties (unless properly licensed by the United States Government to do so);
 - c. to any company controlled by a person on a US State Department list of debarred, specially designated, or otherwise export-restricted persons (unless properly licensed by the United States Government to do so);

- d. to any party in violation of a US State Department embargo (unless properly licensed by the United States Government to do so);
 - e. in violation of any US State Department licensing requirement;
 - f. in violation of any US State Department regulation; nor
 - g. in violation of any US export law that is subject to enforcement or interpretation by the US State Department.
- 4) Customer will not sell, transfer, export, or re-export any items, material, technology, or software that was obtained from or through Regional Airline Support Group:
- a. to any party in violation of a US Treasury Department embargo (unless properly licensed by the United States Government to do so);
 - b. in violation of any US Treasury Department licensing requirement;
 - c. in violation of any US Treasury Department regulation; nor
 - d. in violation of any US export law.
- 5) Customer (and/or the parties who will receive the services, products and/or technical data provided by RASG) is not, has not been and will not be engaged (directly or indirectly) in any of the following activities:
- (a) research, design, support, development, use, construction, or any other activity regarding chemical or biological weapons or their precursors, delivery systems or components for such weapons,
 - (b) research, design, support, development, use, construction or any other activity regarding rocket systems or unmanned air vehicles of any type or support or delivery systems for such weapons,
 - (c) research, design, support, development, use, construction or any other activity regarding nuclear energy, weapons, propulsion projects or other nuclear applications,
 - (d) any other activity prohibited by the U.S. Export Administration Regulations (EAR), the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), U.S. Department of Energy or Nuclear Regulatory Commission export or import regulations, or
 - (e) research, design, support, development, use, construction or any other activity regarding weapons or munitions of any sort.
- 6) Customer warrants that the items, material, technology, or software being sold, transferred, or exported from Regional Airline Support Group (or from Regional Airline Support Group's designee) to Customer (or to Customer's designee) are for use on commercial aircraft in civil operation, unless an alternative intended use is disclosed to Regional Airline Support Group in writing before the transaction.

Export Compliance Certification Statement

- 7) Customer agrees that the requirements and limitations of this Agreement shall survive the completion, early termination, cancellation or expiration of any purchase order, agreement, or contract with Regional Airline Support Group.
- 8) In the event that Customer becomes aware of any violation or suspected violation of the terms of this certification, Customer will immediately notify Regional Airline Support Group of the facts and circumstances and will fully cooperate with any investigation of same.
- 9) Customer agrees that this Agreement applies to all of Customer's subsidiaries and affiliated companies.

I certify that I am authorized to act on behalf of the Customer, and that I have the authority to bind the Customer by this Certification Statement.
